JUDGE ROYLE WILLS

Entire Estate of Deceased Lawyer Goes to Widow Without Restrictions.

DAUGHTER IS MENTIONED

TESTAMENT ASKS THAT SHE BE PROVIDED WITH HOME.

All of the personal property belong- States court against Riley Fitzgerald ing to the late Jonathan C. Royle is with the county clerk for probate yesterday. Mrs. Royle is named as executrix without bonds, and the property, valued at $10,500 in cash and securities, is hers absolutely. She is allowed to dispose of it in any manner she sees fit without application to the court.

It is my wish that my wife, who has been so much to me and who has for so many years borne with me the burthens and the joys and sorrows of life, shall, as far as I can compass it, at my death, be free from poverty, dependence enough to live upon.

Request for Daughter .

Request for Daughter.

The will makes no mention of real estate other than to request that Martha Royle King and her son, Royle E. King, be provided with a home and reasonable maintenance, but this clause contains a provision that it is not to be a lien or charge on the estate.

Judge Royle died June 6, 1910, and the will is dated April 24, 1909, revoking all former wills and mentioning especially a will made March 27, 1908.

The will provides that in case Mrs. I loyle should die before her husband, the property should go to the four children, Sinclair K. Royle and Edwin M. Royle of New York; Jonathan C. Royle of Denver and Mrs. Martha Royle King of Salt Lake.

Habeas corpus proceedings brought before the supreme court for the relation.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES.

Louisa Maria Schaub wants her name changed back to Louisa Maria Fredricka Sauer, according to a complaint filed yesterday against David Henry Schaub, whom she charges with desertion and non-support. They were married at Newark, N. J., January 17, 1899.

Jennie Williams brought suit for divorce yesterday against Frank Williams. They were married at Salt Lake, February 16, 1909, and Mrs. Williams says her husband deserted her just five months and a day afterwards.

Habeas corpus proceedings brought before the supreme court for the relation.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE ON CHARGE OF DESERTION

Desertion after eight years is Stena Ekstedt's charge against James Ek-stedt in a divorce complaint filed in stedt in a divorce complaint filed in the district court yesterday. Mrs. Ek-stedt wants the custody of Lawrence, the 4-year-old son, $10 a month ali-mony, $25 attorney's fees, and costs. The marriage took place in Salt Lake City, March 26, 1901, and Ekstedt de-serted her in 1909, Mrs. Ekstedt charges.

ACQUITTED OF ASSAULT: MEETS ANOTHER CHARGE

Arthur Scott, who some time ago was arrested on the charge of assault with intent to kill Carl Ofers, was acquitted in the police court yesterday. Ofers, the injured chauffeur, was on the stand and stated that he was unable to say whether Scott or Pohunable to say whether Scott or Rob-ert Steinhardt fired the shot. Stein-hardt was arraigned in police court last week on the charge of carrying concealed weapons and was fined $75. A similar charge will be placed against Scott today.

BANK SUES FITZPATRICK.

Alleges He Will Not Return Misappropriated Funds.

Marion C. Fitzpatrick, cashier of the Bank of Ploche, at Ploche, Nev., is charged with the misappropriation of $4,351 of the bank's funds, in a suit brought by the bank against him and his bondsman, the United States Fi-delity & Guaranty company, in the Third district court yesterday. According to the complaint, Fitzpatrick's misappropriations covered the period between February 4, 1907, and June 4, last year, and the bank has made frequent demands for the return of the money, but without avail.

TROLLEY COMPANY ANSWERS, The Merry Widow Trolley company filed an answer in the district court yesterday to the suit brought by the Ingersoll Amusement company. This answer says the Merry Widow company is not a "railway" within the meaning of the term as applied to park amusement devices. The company also asks that the restraining order granted Wednesday by Judge C. W. Morse be dissolved and that the Ingersoll company be estopped from setting up the claim that the Merry Widow encroaches its contract with the Salt Palace management.

dispose of it in any manner she sees fit without application to the court.

In bequeathing his personal property to Mrs. Royle, the husband wrote in his will:

Mrs. Gene O'Dell, charged with conducting a house of ill repute at 62½ Commercial street, was found guilty in police court yesterday. Her sentence was deferred twenty-four hours. E. Olsen, Leonard Patterson and K.

as far as I can compass it, at my death, be free from poverty, dependence or pecuniary anxiety. I am satisfied that my estate will not be large enough to divide between my wife and the children and leave her in such division enough to live upon."

John Siegel and Henry Walters, who have been held in jail for forty days on the charge of stealing $11.40 from Frank Kelley, were released yesterday on their own recognizance. Kelly is in Nevada and the state has no knowledge of when he will return of when he will return.
